Dear Sir,

Sub: Recognition letter from 1 to 7

We are submitting the recognition letter (RC. No. 560/A2/2017) and the letter granting permission to open classes (RC No. 2644/A2/207) received from the Department of Education, Andhra Pradesh for Amberwood International School for classes 1st to 7th. But we received this recognition in the name of 'Amberwood English Medium School, though we have applied with the name 'Amberwood International School', because of a clerical error. We have applied for the correction of the name and also for the extension from 8th to 10th (we have attached this letter and also department letter directing the correction and extension).

We have received the recognition for classes 1 to 10 with the name Amberwood International School. Also, NOC was issued with the name Amberwood International School. NOC and Recognition for classes 8th to 10th have already been submitted.

To,

The Commissioner of School Education,
Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh

Respected Madam,

Subject: Correction of School Name

On behalf of Veda Foundation, the management had applied for permission (L.Dis. No.783/A3/2017) to open classes 1 to X English medium from the academic year 2017-18 in the name of "Amberwood International School", but when we received the permission (Rc. No. 2644/A2/2017), the school name was altered to Amberwood English Medium School. As we will be applying for CBSE permissions and Amberwood International School suits the conceptual basis of the school we are running and Amberwood English Medium does not, we sincerely request that name is reverted back to Amberwood International School on the permission document. We have already approached the Nellore DEO office, with the same request and were informed that it can only be done by the Commissioner office.

Please see the enclosed copy of the Proceedings of the regional joint director of school education, Guntur, which shows that we applied for permission in the name of Amberwood International School.

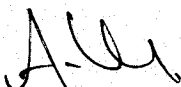

We sincerely request and hope that this matter is considered and resolved as soon as possible.

Thanks and regards.

Yours Faithfully,
